I am a violinist making my home in Chapel Hill NC. I play for weddings, corporate events, religious services, theatrical productions, and any other gathering that calls for elegance, style and class.

EXPERIENCE

AUGUST 2014 – PRESENT

VIOLIN TEACHER, TREV WIGNALL MUSIC

I harbor a great passion for teaching. My lessons are of a collaborative nature. I am motivated to share the flair of modern music along with the joys of Classical. I teach young and old alike.

DECEMBER 2009 – PRESENT

FREELANCE VIOLINIST, TREV WIGNALL MUSIC

I have an extensive repertoire of Classical, Jazz and Pop music to entertain with. I pride myself on my easygoing can-do attitude and warm personality. I love being on stage and I am very comfortable improvising.

EDUCATION

MAY 2014

ELECTRONIC PRODUCTION AND DESIGN, BERKLEE COLLEGE OF MUSIC

$10,000 in scholarship for outstanding work in the program. Studied Jazz violin, and electronic music composition.

MAY 2010

MUSIC, UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA SCHOOL OF THE ARTS

Studied Classical violin with Kevin Lawrence.

SKILLS

- Exceptional training for violin
- Deep familiarity with varied music genres
- Extremely comfortable on stage
- Practiced in electric violin and effects
- Excellent improvisational ability
- Warm and approachable personality
- Fluent with a variety of music and theatre technologies

ACTIVITIES

I play original music and volunteer at music festivals, performing and teaching on both acoustic and electric violin. My favorite so far is MAGFest (Music and Gaming Festival). One of my favorite jobs is working as the audiovisual coordinator at the North Carolina Governor's School west campus. I live and breathe music, listening critically to Classical, Jazz and electronic music daily.
